

Jermaine

Needs a Family

Jermaine currently has a Weekend Miracles host family, but is still looking for an adoptive family.

At age 13, Jermaine is a spunky kid who is always ready to have fun. He is described as a friendly and considerate young man who enjoys helping others. One of Jermaine's biggest passions in life is music. He enjoys writing songs, rapping, and learning to play the guitar. When Jermaine isn't penning new lyrics, he likes to keep up on the latest pop culture – especially movies. He also likes to stay active by playing various sports and is especially fond of soccer. Jermaine hopes to one day play on a soccer team.

Jermaine has been matched with his host since February 2015. His host describes him as polite, charming, and eloquent with both peers and adults. He says Jermaine is always excited for new adventures and experiences, and isn't afraid to try new things.

Jermaine wants a family who can be supportive of his musical interests and appreciate his sense of adventure.

Can you help?

---

Info For more information, please contact
Jessica at jessicap@kidsave.org OR 310.642.7283

KIDSAVE®

Because every child needs a family

www.kidsave.org

1.888.KIDSAVE

Kidsave is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization.